PENALTIES FOR FRAUD: The State and Federal laws provide penalties, including a fine, imprisonment, or both, for persons found guilty of obtaining donated foods for which they are not eligible by making false statements or FAILING TO REPORT PROMPTLY any changes in their circumstances. If evidence that such individuals have willfully violated the law, they will be referred to the proper law enforcement authority for investigation and possible prosecution.

ANY WHO AIDS another person to obtain donated foods fraudulently is subject to the same penalties.

I UNDERSTAND that I have the right to a fair hearing if I am not satisfied with the action taken on my application by the Food Distribution Office.

CONFIDENTIALITY: The use of disclosure by any party of any information concerning a client in violation of any rule of confidentiality or for any purpose not directly connected with the administration of the Department's or the Council's responsibilities with respect to the Food Distribution Program is prohibited, except on written consent of the client, his parent if he is a minor, or his court-appointed guardian.

CIVIL RIGHTS: The U.S. Department of agriculture prohibits discrimination against its customers, employees, and applicants for employment on the bases of race, color, national origin, age, disability, sex, gender identity, religion, reprisal, and where applicable, political beliefs, marital status, familial or parental status, sexual orientation, or all or part of an individual's income is derived from any public assistance program, or protected genetic information in employment or in any program or activity conducted or funded by the Department. (Not all prohibited bases will apply to all programs and/or employment activities.)

If you wish to file a Civil Rights program complaint or discrimination, complete the USDA Program Discrimination Complaint Form, found online at http://www.ascr.usda.gov/complaint_filing_cust. html, or at any USDA office, or call (866) 632-9992 to request the form. You may also write a letter containing all of the information requested in the form. Send your completed complaint form or letter to us by mail at U.S. Department of Agriculture, Director, Office of Adjudication, 1400 Independence Avenue, S.W., Washington, D. C. 20250-9410, by fax (202) 690-7442 or email at program.intake@usda.gov.
